

ANC Commissioner Arrested Last Night During Protest

By Aaron Morrissey, DCist, April 20, 2011

Last night, ANC 6C01 Commissioner Keith Silver was arrested by Capitol Police during a march and demonstration outside various Congressional office buildings. Silver was joined by several other ANC Commissioners, Shadow Senator Michael D. Brown (who was arrested himself during a similar protest last Friday) and about 10 other residents during the protest, which was also supported by Mayor Vince Gray.

According to organizers, similar weekly protests are being planned. Though we have to be honest: it's somewhat unlikely that demonstrations during which only one individual -- who isn't well-known outside of hyperlocal political circles -- gets arrested are going to draw a whole lot of ink for the cause.
